Andrea comes to BLUBERYL with over a decade of work experience in education, university-level advising, and career counseling. She enjoys helping students transition between high school and college and from college to graduate school or into careers. When she isn't supporting students, you can find Andrea behind the camera, relaxing with her latest craft projects, or supporting others through her volunteer work. With great warmth and a gentle demeanor, Andrea is committed to helping students find success and confidence both inside and outside of their educational setting.

Andrea holds a bachelor of arts degree in psychology and a master's degree in college student personnel. She is currently a doctoral candidate in educational leadership at UNC Charlotte. When not working with students and families, you can find Andrea traveling with her husband or playing with her rescued beagles, Jack and Jake.
